Most Memorable Game/Competition (You’ve been a part of) and Why?

The most memorable game of my life was at the world series in Berlin. I was up to bat runner on third. All we needed was one run to win the whole thing. I hit the ball deep right field and the runner scored. The energy was electric. It was the first time my team ever won anything like that before.

Most Influential Person in Your Life: it is a tough choice between my mom and my dad but I would say my mom taught me more about life and dealing with tough situations. Her words got me through the hardest times in my life.
