Words You Live By/Favorite Quote: As long as you tried your best and never gave up, the score does not matter.

Most Memorable Game (You've been a part of) and Why: Most memorable meet I have been a part of was last year's State meet for my club team. I had a pulled hamstring; two sprained ankles and my back was hurting. I ended up doing pretty well but the part that was most memorable was it was seniors last meet ever. The seniors were considered to me my best friends. One of them I have done gymnastics with since I was 7 years old. I was so upset but so proud of them. It was hard seeing them compete for the last time but at least I got to be there with them.

Most Influential Person in Your Life: My Nana, Carolyn. She was my mom's step-mom and practically helped raised me alongside my parents and grandpa. She always made me feel safe and made me as happy as possible. She has taught me almost everything I know and I strive to be just like her. Even if I become only half the person she was, I will know I succeed.
